The Mini Spearhead traverse is a popular fitness ride. It ascends Whistler Mountain toward Singing Pass, heads across the valley on singletrack trails to a bridge over Fitzsimmons Creek and returns to town via a descent on Blackcomb.

Start by climbing up the Whistler Summer Access Road. Continue straight past the water tower onto the Singing Pass Access Road and follow it for 1.3 kilometers to an old parking area. Trend left on a singletrack trail before dropping down to Fitzsimmons Creek. Cross the creek, then follow the rough 4-by-4 road back toward the base of the mountain. At the intersection with the Blackcomb Summer Access Road, a left turn will lead riders down to Base 2 and a right will climb up Fitzsimmons Road to the trailhead of Crazy Train and Hey Bud.

Access: Start at the Whistler Village bus loop and climb the Whistler Summer Access Road.
